1) Citrix Application Packager & Infrastructure Engineer, Parsippany or Collegeville, NJ. 6 months+

Rate: Open

The Citrix Packaging Engineer will function as a subject matter expert to the Project Manager and the project team and will perform the following CITRIX Engineering activities :

Packaging\Sequencing of Citrix published applications using primarily Microsoft App-V 4.6 that need to be moved from legacy infrastructure to the XenApp 6.5 infrastructure in support of retirement of the legacy environments

Assist the CITRIX Server Engineers to deliver the end to end virtualization process that will be used in the execution phase.

Assist the CITRIX infrastructure engineers and the Application Rationalization team to refine and execute a process that will be used to capture relevant application info that will work with the end to end process process feed.

Assist the CITRIX Engineers to deliver an updated project plan.

Assist the CITRIX Project Manager to deliver Master App List of all CITRIX servers and the applications running on those servers.

Execute the projects within time and budget parameters to a successful completion.

Required skills include :

Five or more years of experience with Citrix Metaframe XP, Presentation Server, and XenApp application hosting technologies, including management consoles, Web Interface and Licensing components, Installation Manager, and Resource Manager.

Five or more years of experience with administration and troubleshooting of Microsoft Windows 2000/2003 Server operating systems.

Three or more years of experience with Microsoft Application Virtualization.
Visual Basic, NT Batch and SQL Scripting, MetaFrame COM, and Windows Management Interface experience required.

Experience in analyzing and troubleshooting issues encompassing a broad range of technologies, including network, database, storage, and security.

Experience in system design and project management.

Required competencies include :

Process Management (critical competency)
Relationship Management (critical competency)
Prioritization Setting (critical competency)
Drive for Results
Customer Focus